January 2018 Retreat

Atlanta Friends Meetinghouse

On the weekend of January 12-14, 2018, the Southern Appalachian Young Friends met at the Atlanta Friends Meeting. This is our witness. This is our story.

Dear SAYF,

This weekend was a lot of fun, thanks Atlanta FM. Can't wait for the next SAYF!

Dear SAFE,

I can't believe it's been a year already. I'm so glad I have been with it. I remember when I first came here it was warm, this year it was very cold and very windy.

Laughing Anyway I love All, the activities we did plus patrick fire breathing was awesome. Everyone was very chill this retreat which was great. Anyway, thank y'all so much for everything you have done this weekend. Till next time, everyone stay "SAFE" Haha. Peace, Later, Love ya. - CrowBar

Dear SAYFers,

I truly enjoyed your beautiful, joyful companionship and time in the community together this chilly weekend. This was a "unicorn" weekend - rare and special. I leave this weekend feeling refreshed and fulfilled, ready once again to sing the praises of you and the SAYF program. You are all wonderful people. (Hey, we forgot the kitchen dance party! Must fix that at the next retreat.) Stay awesome you lovely, lovely people.

Forever yours,
Jennifer

Dear SAYF,

While this retreat was small and lacking many regular Sayfers, it did not lack in spirit. The size of the retreat really gave me an opportunity to meet new Sayfers and get to know others better. SAYF is such a kind and loving place that really offers a much needed break from everyday life. I just want to thank the Atlanta friends meeting, the FANs, and the whole SAYF community for giving everyone a wonderful community where people feel comfortable to express themselves.

Lots of love, Mandy
